Register Now!

This free webinar is designed for healthcare providers and suppliers impacted by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) new Emergency Preparedness (EP) Rule. All of the 17 CMS providers must comply with the EP requirements by November 15, 2017 and must be prepared to respond to periods of emergency by the November deadline.

In this free webinar, you will:

- Learn about the CMS Emergency Preparedness requirements
- Learn about training priorities for compliance
- Learn about training opportunities and receive tools to do a self-assessment and evaluate risks

Speakers:

Austin Howe, MHS, CEM, is the Director of Business Continuity, Emergency Management and Security at Planned Parenthood of the Pacific Southwest, the 2nd largest affiliate in the country. His region encompasses the three most southern counties in California and is responsible for the safety and continuity planning for 23 facilities.

Nora O'Brien, MPA, CEM, is the Chief Executive Officer of Connect Consulting Services, Inc., a healthcare emergency preparedness firm that specializes in emergency preparedness and business continuity planning, response capacity, training, and program implementation.
